Biography

With a career spanning over two decades, Sally has worked across various clinical settings, including acute, rehabilitation, community, and specialist settings, most recently holding a locum position within a long Covid clinic, and now focusing on case management for clients with complex and diverse needs.

She has held senior leadership positions, managing multidisciplinary teams, overseeing service development, and ensuring the consistent delivery of high-quality, client-centred care. Known for her approachable manner and genuine compassion, Sally quickly builds trust and rapport with clients and their families, creating a safe and supportive environment where people feel heard, understood, and empowered in their recovery journey.

Sally has extensive experience in delivering comprehensive assessments, developing tailored rehabilitation plans, and coordinating care pathways that bring together the right professionals and resources at the right time. Sally is recognised for her ability to navigate complex situations with professionalism, empathy, and sensitivity, ensuring that safeguarding measures are addressed promptly and that well-being is prioritised at every stage. Her approach is defined by clear and timely communication, meticulous organisation, and the ability to adapt to the evolving needs of her clients.

* Please note that following an INA or similar assessment, any ongoing case management may be completed by one of our experienced in-house case managers via remote / desktop support.
